

Lilac

A relatively slow growing shrub that does well in King's Deer without much watering once established. A new plant will require about two to three years to become established.

A deciduous shrub with showy purple flowers in spring.

Plant in full sun. Thrives in alkaline, well-drained soil.

Lilac in full bloom in early spring

Lilac in early summer

Lilac in fall